

Carnetings, Carnetings, Carnetings.

BARNES & MITCHELL would call attention to their unusually large and elegant supply of carpets, floor cloths, rugs, and many other desirable goods. They are all opened within the last day or two. And the greater number having been purchased at auction, will certainly be sold ten per cent. less than the same can be elsewhere. That is the reason why they are so cheap. They will invite persons in want of all and every description of house-furnishing goods to call and see their assortment before selling elsewhere, as they are determined to sell as cheap and cheaper than the same can be had in this or any other city. They would name as having just received—

HATS, pants, and vests made to order.—BARNES & MITCHELL would respectfully announce to gentlemen that they have opened within the last few days the most complete stock of hats and the best stock of French clothing, namely, coats, cambruses, and vestings that have ever before been brought to this market, embracing the latest makes, and the most fashionable styles of the colors of the season, and at such moderate rates as will please the most fast and most economical buyers. As it is now the season to increase their business in this particular branch this season, they would earnestly invite all gentlemen in want of a good and handsome hat, coat, pair pants, or vest, to call upon them, and view the stylish style, to call and examine their great variety before buying, as they are determined to sell at the lowest prices, and give the best quality of goods in point of cutting and general workmanship, are equal to any on the city. And they will, in every case, guarantee a satisfactory result. After the purchase will be liberally returned to take the goods.

A Card of Some Importance.

THIS subscriber is manufacturing a patent furnace for halls, churches, ice, dwellings, &c. It is the most economical arrangement known for only one-third of each "building," and that in the basement or cellar, and not to consume more than from four to five tons of coal, and requiring only one man to attend it. The inventor of the article to call and examine the same. The outer surface, being composed of galvanized iron, exhibits a very lustrous crystalline exterior, which is not subject to rust. Warmth and great satisfaction in all cases, their great advantages having been tested in Alexandria.

The subscriber has also on hand, and will continue to keep, a large and well selected assortment of the best and most approved stove iron, comprising the best of the American, British, and Foreign panor cook-stoves. Cast and Russia iron parlor stoves, of different patterns and various sizes. Also, a large assortment of

EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL OF VIRGINIA.

The Diocesan School, near Alexandria; Rev. E. A.

THE next session of this seminary will commence on the second Wednesday (10th) of September, and continue ten months. The object of the school is to educate youth thoroughly on Christian principles, to develop their spiritual and mental faculties, and to prepare them for the active duties of life. The course is extensive in every department, and comprises the most approved and scientific method of imparting competent instruction in every branch. Terms and room persons, payable semi-annually, in advance. Parents sending two sons pay for the third. Boarding fifty cents per week. The number of students is limited to 75. Parents who intend to send their children are requested to send them to the seminary as early as possible, so that they may be properly prepared for their studies. All who purpose entering the school are most earnestly requested to present themselves personally on the first day of September. Applications for admission will be received until the 1st of October. Address to the Rector, post office "Theological Seminary, Fairbury, Nebraska."
